“ I send my sincere condolences to the Beaver Family. Thoughts and prayers are with the family, also. Tommy was a very nice, thoughtful gentleman. When we were neighbors and went to school at Morris. He always got picked up on the school bus before me and when I would get on he always saved me a seat next to him. Every morning, he would say the same thing in Creek. Hensci, Hoktuce. Likvs. which meant, Hello, Little Girl, sit here. I really got close to Tommy because I was very shy at that time, believe it or not. He made me feel so comfortable, I wasn't afraid to go to school. I will miss him because after all these years, we kept in contact on facebook. He may be gone but he will never be forgotten. Rest In Peace, Tommy! Until we meet again.
