“ Jennifer, Jodie and Jamie. So sorry to hear about your Mother, Joan's brother is in the Baptist Village and he had a Morris paper that had her obituary in it. We remember you girls and your Mother and Dad from our time at the Methodist Church. Hope you all are doing fine and we will keep your family in our prayers, it is hard when you loose a parent. Gods blessings for you all.

“ Jodie, thinking of you and sending my love and prayers your way. I didn't know your Mother that well but I have a vivid memory of your Dad (was he our basketball coach?) He never said these actual words out loud but his expression said it all: "How can you be that tall and not be able to run and dribble at the same time?" Hope this puts a smile on your face during a difficult time. Love you girl.

“ So sorry for your loss, girls and family. I hope it brings peace to your hearts that she's with your dad now, and they're both watching over you. Judy always had a smile on her face and is a huge part of my childhood. I'll never forget arguing with her over a yellow crayon when I was a Blue Bird. (It was a weird shape that I haven't seen before, or since. Bless her heart for trying to convince 8 year old me. She never backed down. Lol) Sending much love, light, and peace to everyone in her amazing life!

“ What a beautiful person Judy was and is in eternity! I was privileged to have known her. She was a joy to be around. I always made a point to drop by her office at Harlan to chat. She was warm, always smiling, and never aloof. She was an excellent mother, as is evident in her successful and wonder children. She is already missed by this community.
