

Marylan Kay Melton

June 4, 1942 - June 11, 2020

Marylan K. Melton, 78 of Okmulgee, Oklahoma passed away June 11, 2020 at her home. She had been having health problems for a few years. She was born June 4, 1942 in Lamar, Missouri, the daughter of the late Lloyd Johnny Zinn and Bertha Mae (Faubian) Zinn. She grew up in Alluwe, Oklahoma and attended schools there. They moved to Parsons, Kansas and she graduated from Parsons High School. After graduation she married Earl Wayne Melton on May 6, 1960 in Miami, Oklahoma. During his time in the Army, she got to travel to different states and countries. They settled down in Parsons, Kansas in 1977, where she was a substitute teacher for the 506 school district. She loved going dancing and being with her grandkids and great-grandkids.

Marylan is survived by her daughter, Linda K Melton Smith and husband John Smith of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, four grandkids; Shane Smith of Okmulgee, Oklahoma; Darren Blasor and wife Agustina of Parsons, Kansas; Michael Blasor and Sarah Jones of Parsons, Kansas; Jason Blasor of Derby, Kansas.

She had so many more grandkids that had come into her life that she called her own. She had four great-grandkids; Izaya Blasor, Abbie Jones, Seth Jones, and Quincey Jones. She had so many more great-grandkids that she loved. She will be missed and loved by not only family but all the people she has touched. A graveside service will be held Friday, June 19th, 2020 at Springhill Cemetery in Parsons, Kansas, where she will be laid to rest with her husband and parents. In lieu of flowers the family ask that donations be made to your local animal shelter.

Arrangements and cremation services have been entrusted to the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home of Okmulgee.
