“ It has been 72 hours since I received the call that you had departed this earth. It has been 72 hours of constant tears following from my eyes and trying to remember a memory of us growing up as children. My children never had the opportunity to meet you but they now have a guardian angel to watch over them as they continue to grow. I am a firm believer that we will meet again at Jesus feet but until we meet again brother, fly high with the angels and walk the streets of gold for us. We love you and miss you terribly

“ You were always so kind and funny, I would assume you got that from your wonderful mother!! Dance with Jesus for me!!! Give my mom a big ole hug and tell her I love her!!! You touched so many while you were here. You will be missed fiercely but never forgotten. You will live on in our hearts and our memories. Rejoicing in Paradise!!

“ Dear Melissa and family,
My heart breaks for you and I'm so sorry for your loss. The comfort you will find is knowing Scotty is in heaven and he is not hurting or suffering and he's so happy there. He knew how much you loved him and cared for him. That means everything. He is safe in the arms of our Lord and Saviour. I am praying for you as you navigate this journey of grief and praying the Lord will give you peace, understanding, mercy and grace. I am here for you and I love you dearly my friend. May God grant you the serenity to accept the things you can not change, courage to change the things you can and the wisdom to know the difference. Lord Jesus please wrap your loving arms around Melissa and her family and guide them down this different path. You promised never to leave us or forsake us and they need you now more than ever. Amen. My deepest sympathies my friend.
Love you, Kim

“ I am so very sorry Melissa and family. When you are outside on a warm sunny day...look up to the Heavens and see the sun shining through. Feel the warmth of the sun on your face. That is Richard looking down on you. He wants you to know he is watching over you. His work on earth is done. He is caring for you from Heaven's doors.
