“ I grew up across from Al and went to church with him and although my childhood memories are few, the most vivid are of Al. He and my dad helped me learn baseball. He always had time to talk with me and loved his family so much and I trust he's now united with Christ and his son, Mike!. Peace be with you Al. Much love to Lorraine and Donna.

“ The Glenn Miller family sends their thoughts and prayers for Al's family in this time of sorrow. We have many memories of Al while we attended St. Anthony's, but what we all remember most was his smile and his friendliness. He will be so missed.
