“ I will always remember the times in n.j. on kerhart ave in berlin....my mom worked so aunt marge and uncle angelo had a hand in raising my stubborn little butt! he was always very kind ...on the quiet side,but he sure could tell a story! I got to go to his mom's house in blue anchor a lot and I think that was one of the first times I was introduced to authentic Italian food...I've been a fan since those early years! he was a great family man and I will always remember his dedication to my aunt marge and his family! to my cousin...Louis...I love ya man and may your family be as strong threw these difficult times as his love was for his family,his country,and his God. RIP...uncle angelo!

“ My favorite memory of Uncle Angelo is when all of us cousins would be laughing and talking, he would suddenly deliver a comment that would really put us in stitches. We wouldn't ever think he was paying any attention to us but he was. I think he liked that we are all so close and he loved to see us having fun.
