“ Ann & my mother Donna Wilson worked together at Phoenix Federal Savings & Loan for several years. After Ann's retirement & the birth of our daughter Stephanie in 1981, Ann took care of her until she was 14 months old. Ann & Wayne were like another set of "grandparents" for her.

My parents & I watched OU win the 1975 football National Championship by beating Michigan in the Orange Bowl at Ann & Wayne's house. Ann was a wonderful cook & we had a great meal that night.

Ann was such a sweet, caring person & will be missed by many.

Our love to Lee, Sharon, Barbara & the rest of the Riker family.

Lee and family, may God console your hearts during this time. Ann was my Sunday school teacher when I was a little girl at Eastside Assembly of God, I loved going to her class and she left me with fond memories. She always had a smile, another saint I am waiting to spend my eternity with.,Jeanie Baldrige
