“ Betty and Euell were our good neighbors, for many years. Betty was so sweet, we had many visits across the fence, while hanging out our laundry. I will never forget Chipper, there little dog, he wasn't to crazy about my kids, yet he loved Betty and Euell. While Betty was sweeping off her porch, Euell would be walking up the road, because he ran out of gas, in one his cars for sale. Betty would just shake her head, and take him to get gas. She babysit for me when needed. It was so hard to go visit her, in nursing home, she loved life so much. Glad she is in Heaven with Euell, and neither one of them are suffering, but singing together. Gone..... but will always hold a special place in my heart. RIP Betty.
