Betty attended Rocky Hill, Nuyaka Schools and then graduated from Nuyaka High School in 1954. Her parents passed very early in her life and eldest brother Eugene Sunny and eldest sister Josephine (JoJo) Sunny raised her. She has always been very grateful and honored in their sacrifice to do that for her. She grew up walking to Honey Creek Methodist Church with her siblings every Wednesday evenings and all day Sunday Services. She dedicated her life very early to the Lord. Along with the love of her church, she also enjoyed listening to and traveling to see the "King of Western Swing" Bob Wills at Cains Academy Ballroom. She also loved attending the games, listening to or watching her Oklahoma Sooners on the TV.

She worked at Ball Brothers Glass plant briefly and the Muscogee Creek Nation in the Departments of Higher Education, Community Health Representative, Home and Family Aid Services and the Creek Elderly Housing for 28 years.

In addition to her parents and all of her siblings, she was preceded in death by her husband Robert "Bob" Woodfield and oldest son Steven Woodfield. Betty is survived by her youngest son Samuel Woodfield, 3 Granddaughter's, 8

Great Grandchildren, 1 Great great Grandson, several nephews, nieces and cousins. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister and friend always thinking of others before herself. “ My deepest and sincerest sympathy to Betty's family. I have known Betty since I was a little girl. She always called me “Babe”, maybe she called everyone Babe. The last time I saw her was at my Uncle Roscoe Wolfe's funeral and she smiled and said to me “when did you get in Babe”. I will always be thankful for knowing her. May the Peace that Passes all understanding be with you, her family and friends.
