“ Memory of Maxine for my life time. We grew up on the same block. I am please to recall specfic family and family events with her resently. Included were Aunt Minnie stories. She was my grandmother. Lots of family pictures taken in front of Beulahs (her mother)great White Snow Ball Bush. cousin stories,Gossip (church lady type) and the 5 years we attended same church as adults. I was impressed with the time frame of events and how she could remembered them. She truly loved us all. Her soul is at rest.##imported-begin##Edith Morton##imported-end##

“ Maxine,

You have always held a special place in my heart. You and your family were always kind and loving to my dad in his childhood, and to our family. I always smile when I think of the strawberry ice cream floats your dad would make me.

Thank you for being my family.

Soar with the angels dear lady.

Love,

Bobbie Sue and John and in memory, my beloved
