“ Dear Lewis family,

I have often wondered about my friend Beverly, having lost touch with her several years ago. And sadly, this morning, I read of her passing.

I met Beverly when your family lived in Muskogee, next door to my parents, Bill and Billye Mae Smith.

We became good friends, after I showed an interest in quilting! She was eager to teach me everything she knew! We would spend hours out in her sewing room, and went to fabric stores, flea markets and antique shops looking for treasures.

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sad time.

Beverly's friendship was a blessing.

*Sincerely,
Leslie Poitevent*
