On July 12, 1958, Beverly married Harold Weiny, and together they built a life filled with love, family, and adventure. They initially settled in Unionville, Iowa where they raised their family, and Harold's career later took them to various towns across the United States. They lived for a number of years in Southwest City, Missouri. For the past 15 years, Beverly and Harold have called Okmulgee, Oklahoma home.

Beverly had a zest for life and a love for the outdoors. She enjoyed camping and fishing, especially at her favorite spot at Sandy Beach, Iowa. Her family fondly remembers her exceptional liver and onions and her skill in preparing wild game.

An accomplished crocheter, Beverly crafted countless family heirlooms with her skilled hands. In her younger days in Centerville, Iowa she was known for her adventurous spirit, often drag racing the boys, and her love of speed stayed with her—she was always known for having a heavy foot while driving. Beverly was preceded in death by her parents, her son Mark D. Weiny, granddaughter Jessie Beaty, and great-granddaughter Laramie Moffett.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 66 years, Harold; their daughters, Annette Moffett, Michelle Paul, Melody Poland, and Deborah McCracken; her half-brothers, Chris and Henry Herman; 20 grandchildren; 36 great-grandchildren; and 2 great-great-grandchildren.
