“ What a sweet, Beautiful Lady Bobbe was. It was truly a Gift to even know her. Always so kind and giving of herself. Always volunteering! I especially loved going to the Red Cross and donating blood just to see her and spend time with her, and she ALWAYS baked something special for her Blood Donors. To the Family, Please know that they, (the Donors and the Personal @ the Blood Drive) ask about her and miss her. Bobbe was a friend of my Parents, Ann and Mervin Sterner, as well as her husband, and my Parents treasured her as well. Another Heart of Pure Gold has been taken, but she truly made her mark on this world and is on to Heaven to make her mark there! She will be deeply missed. All my best to the Family, Debbie Walker##imported-begin##Debbie Walker##imported-end##

“ Bobbe Orange was an Election Board Inspector and worked at the Presbyterian Church, Precinct 6. In the past 10 years, she only missed one election and that was the last one held in February 2010. She was energetic, enthusiastic and very dedicated. She will be missed at the Okmulgee County Election Board.##imported-begin##Ann Powders##imported-end##
