Throughout her life she won the trust and hearts of many by showering love, acceptance, and generosity.

She was preceded in death by both her parents, her brother Rocky Gene Hinds, and sister-in-law Candy Sue (nee Hunter) Hinds.

Five grandchildren Marissa Liliana Piza, Nathaniel Lucas Smith, Isaac Matthew Smith, Leanna Love Smith, Alana Faith Smith, brothers Charles Ray Hinds, Waylon Thomas Dahl, and many nieces and nephews.

“ My Mama truly loved with all of her heart, and that will be what I miss the most. The overwhelming feeling of love I had when was with her. She loved these grandbabies. She would call a few hours after she'd watched them and say, "I miss my babies! When can you bring them back?" I'll miss our long talks about everything and nothing at all, just solving the world's problems we used to say. Calling her and telling her something funny the kids did, or ask her if I was going to make it through this phase of life. I'll miss her encouraging words always lifting me up. I cannot imagine how we're going to make it through this crazy life without you .

“ About a year ago, Carla asked for my new address so she could send me something. It arrived a few days later and it was absolutely the most beautiful handmade crocheted Afghan I've ever seen! No holiday, no reason, just because. That is who Carla was. Kind, thoughtful, generous, pleasant, smiling. She always found a way to see everything in a positive light. It's just too soon for her to go. But just think of the reunion in heaven!

“ Carla was one the most kindest, generous and loving people that I have know. I'm a better person for knowing her the past 38 years as a sister-in-law.

“ I've known Carla most of our lives, she always had a sunny smile and kind word in her soft voice. I'm sad to say we lost touch over the years and only kept in touch rarely. I would always see her in her garden on a sunny day when I was in Preston. Such a sweet soul. Prayers for her family as they deal with their loss. Cherish the memories wrap them tight around you and they will keep you warm

God Bless & God Speed.
