“ Always in my memory will be the wonderful carefree days my cousins and I spent at Chalmers' farm. Fishing in the pond, scary trips to the outhouse, fried chicken dinners with home-made ice cream after we all had a turn at turning the churn. I will always remember the trips down into the storm cellar where we "sampled" my aunt's labors at home canned pickles, and delicious peaches. Most of all I will remember my uncle's soft spoken voice, and ready laughter at our antics, and his charming smile. I am so glad Betty and I had an opportunity to return to Okmulgee in 1996 to revisit our former home and renew friendships with our cousins and Aunts and Uncles. I am so sorry for your loss. I know he was the rock of your family May God bless his soul, and bless each of you as you travel through your journey of loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Your cousin in Oregon, Margaret Williams Burns
