“ I knew Charles at the age of five. He lived a block from me. I called him Chuckie, I have a picture of us at the age of five making a snowman with my older brothers. I remember my mom going to Matthews grocery store. I was told to stay in the yard. When she was gone. I ran to his house to play. But I did not get home fast enough and I got a whipping, But it was okay I had a crush on him. I do wish his family condolences.
