“ to our beautiful daughter sommer dawn pollard. i can remember when i came back from ohio after giving birth to you, mamaw and papaw brought us right home, as it should be. i wouldn't let your daddy see you at that time. me and bubby were hungry, everyone was at work so i told him you were asleep in mamaw and papaws bedroom, i locked the bedroom door,because i knew how to get back in the bedroom.when i got home i walked in and the bedroom door was open. your uncle and daddy had picked the lock with a nail, i was so mad until i really looked and your daddy was standing over the top of your crib just staring at you and when i started screaming, what are you doing here? baby girl, he turned around and looked at me , he had the biggest tears rolling down his face and said you can't keep me from her that's my daughter too. he really did love you sommer or as he called you som-som booty booty. i will never forget that day,now, you shouln't either. moma loves you so very much.##imported-begin##cari pollard long##imported-end##

“ Barbara, Glenda, & Little Glen and of course the entire family. Chuck was our daughter Cari's 1st husband. I loved that big ole smile that Chucky showed to me everytime I saw him. The last time I saw him about 6 months to a year ago, I put my arms around him (and he did me as well) and told him how much I loved him. I will greatly miss you Chucky. It has been a joy to have you come along and be added as another friend, and Son-In-Law. Hope to see you up there in Heaven. Hold me a spot.##imported-begin##Lois & Jack##imported-end##

“ To my Darling Granddaughter- Sommer Frank. I know down deep in my heart that your Daddy Chucky loved you very much. Things just seem to change, sometimes for the better, sometimes for the worse. But if anyone has ever known and met you, they know that Your Mother (Cari Pollard Long) and Chucky Pollard made a beautiful, loving, kind and awesome child together. May God always hold your hand and walk the lonely roads with you, therefore never leaving you alone.
