“ Cheryl is my sister-in-law. My memory of her is that she loved fiercely. One memory I have is of Terry and Cheryl is how much they wanted a child. Seems like they tried everything. Then they heard about floating a pyramid above their bed. It worked because God blessed them with a beautiful baby girl, Terrye Dawn. She was named after Terry and my father, whose name was Don. I will miss her. I believe she was the last “Little “
