“ His name was Claude Richard, everyone knew him as Dick, we regularly called him "Granddaddy" and he always called me Jaybird. This man made a MAJOR impact on my life. For some reason God put me at Harlan Ford at the right time of my life when I REALLY needed it most, and having "Granddaddy" as my influence was certainly life changing. He made a mark on my life that will never fade away, I have missed talking with him since I moved from Okmulgee, and still not sure how he did it, but somehow he talked me into getting up at 6:00 am to meet him at Braums for a sausage biscuit and coffee on several occasions. I am so glad to have recently went and visited him at Rebold Manor. My thoughts and prayers to his family, and thank you for sharing him with the rest of us. I truly loved that man, and truly thought of him as my "Granddaddy". Rest in peace Dick, thanks for everything, and I will always remember you.

“ My dearest sympathies to Claude's family, I work at what used to be OMH, he was always a joy to take care of. He never had a cross word no matter how bad he felt. Always concerned with how everyone else was doing and not how he was. We had a standing joke between us, he would come in with his COPD about every six months and while he was here I would trim his nails for him. I told him that was the only reason he would come in, he just laughed and agreed with me. I feel so blessed to have gotten to know such a wonderful man, I will miss him deeply.
