“ So sorry to hear about Hooter. He had a good heart and a zest for wild times. It is hard to lose someone. I pray you will remember only the good times with fondness. I know I have a lot of nice memories growing up with him. May God comfort all of you. Hooter is at rest. Here is a poem someone sent me when I lost my mom.

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I 'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. a friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My Life's been full, I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God wanted me now, He set me free.
