“ It's been along time since I been on here. I had another dream & i am always so happy to see you & talk to you. I'm glad you make a visit at least 3 time's a month. I miss you so much. I know you're happy up there. I'm sad your up there, 💔 just because I want to see you physically , but I still have a piece of you w/ me. Always & forever. I get to see the side smirk you make, the willingness & fussiness, the know it all attitude, compassionate, strong, honesty to the bone, Intelligent, Trendy, Strawberry blonde hair, Tall, Side smirk smile, again. Lol. Beautiful human with the kindest soul, who would take their shirt off their back to keep you warm in the cold. I always put a broken heart, but it's not broken, 1 is for you up there, & the other is down here. 💔 When we all meet again up there. To put it back together & make a whole❤️.

I don't have much more to say at this time, just been thinking about you today, & it hits me from time to time. I feel like this writing this will help me. Maybe stop crying, like always. I can hear you now, "Holly! Stop crying! I can't understand you." Knowing darn well you can. Lolol.

Thank you, for everything you done for me, stood by me, & giving me a piece of the world, I would've never imagined, that piece was one of the best things in my life.

I love you, Clint William Hames. ❤️

AKA (side joke) William Bill Clinton. I kid, I kid, You hated that. Lol

I will be back soon ❤️

Love you always & forever, but I still have a piece of you w/ me.

Bless Nancy in these hard time's, & all your family & friends.

Love,

Holly

“ I'm so sorry for your devastating loss. Please take comfort knowing that Clint was greeted by loving family members that went to Heaven before him, and that he quite literally walks with Jesus.

I will pray for God to stay close to the family that stayed here, those who will miss him every minute of every day until you meet again.

“ Clint was so close to me. I remember when we first met at my grandparents house just down the road from where he lived. he would always come to the back gate and want to play. we would share his bike and ride up and down the alley way. then we realized we were in the same grade at school which made it even better. My grandpa loved him, i know because he would and still to this day, give me a hard time about Clint being my "boyfriend" he was a part of our family and he had no idea. Whenever we would pass each other, anywhere, we always made sure to at least wave or stop and chat about life, anything that was happening. He always had a smile on his face. He always made sure that I was doing ok. If there was something that was bothering me, he wanted to know. He was definitely loved in our family. When i spoke to my grandma about his passing, she broke down in tears. My heart aches for his family. My family is shattered as well. Clint will always have that special place in my heart, no matter what. I love you Clint. Rest Well.

“ Clint was one of my middle school students. My memories of him were of a sweet, fun-loving, laid back boy who was a delight to have in class. I'm so sorry that his life has been cut short.

“ Nancy, From those of us who knew your son (Okmulgee Vision Clinic) he always had and always will have a special place in our hearts. Words really can not describe his visits at our office. He always knew what he wanted and we did our best to accommodate him. I just remember he loved the color blue. May Jesus give your strength and be your guide during this difficult time.
