

Coy Truman Lewis Sr.

November 29, 1945 - May 2, 2013

Coy Truman Lewis Sr. 67, was born November 29, 1945 to Willie Lewis and Vera Lahoma Perryman and died May 2, 2013 in the arms of his wife of 49 years Sherry Anne Gunn. They were married on December 12, 1964.

Coy worked 42 years on the Railroad for Burlington Northern Sante Fe. He was very proud of his employment and respected by many for his knowledge of track maintenance.

Coy was a family man loving being near his family and friends. He loved the outdoors and wild life. He loved to hunt squirrels and swamp rabbits and raising his beloved beagles for rabbit hunting. Coy also loved to watch his grandchildren play sports. Never missing one of Heather's basketball or Corey's football games. He loved watching Tyler also until his illness began to prevent it. Also important to him was his walking and breakfast friends. He looked forward to spending time with this group weekly.

Coy was preceded in death by his father Willie Lewis, his sister Dorene Bergman and his niece Sara Basquez.

Survivors include his wife Sherry of the home, daughter Carmen and husband Stony Arrington of Okmulgee, son Coy Truman Lewis Jr. of Okmulgee, grandchildren, Heather Arrington Neal and husband Chris of Okmulgee, Corey Lewis of Morris, Tyler Arrington of Okmulgee and Tiarra Lewis of Okmulgee, a sister Shelly Edgeman and husband Steve of Okmulgee, two brothers Danny Lewis of Okmulgee and Willie (Poncho) Lewis and wife Lisa of Okmulgee.

Funeral service will be on Tuesday, May 7, 2013, 2:00 pm at the McClendon-Winters Chapel with Rev. David Hamilton officiating.

Viewing will be on Monday 1:00 pm until 8:00 pm. Condolences may be made at mcclendon-winters.com.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Sherry and other members of Coy's wonderful family. If my childhood in Okmulgee were a movie, Coy certainly would have been an important actor. He was someone that I admired and was fortunate to call a friend. In our close-knit group of friends, Coy was an honored member and respected leader. His athletic and hunting skills certainly were respected by all of us, but much more than these were the fundamental quality of his character and the friendship he generously shared with all of us. Most of all, I can still remember his laughter...and we laughed a lot!

Having left Okmulgee many years ago, I realize how much I miss Coy's fellowship...but I am the better for having known him for the brief time we shared in our Okmulgee stomping grounds. I pray that the grief of losing Coy will quickly be replaced by loving memories that will last the rest of our lives until we once again share fellowship with him and our Lord for eternity.
