“ The Doherty Family (Terry's) send our condolences to The Ashley Family, Justine, Jamie, Jackie and Jacob. We enjoyed Steve's humor, his Big Blue bronco, and handiness!! Spending hurricane Bob with Steve was a riot. He thought trees would fall on his Bronco and must have moved it at least five times in the yard before he ended parking it in a grocery store lot with no chance it would be harmed!!! We are so very sorry for your loss. Ramona, Mary Lee and all the Cape Cod clan ar praying for Steve and healing prayers for all.

“ To Jackie, Justine, Jamie, Jacob, Dick, Sue Ann, Richard, Doug, and Katie, and also to anyone who loved or knew Steve:

It is heartbreaking to bear a loss this deep, I am so sorry for your hearts, and pray for healing and peace through your grieving process.

Steve was ornery, stubborn, and barely budged when he believed in something. Yet he loved intensely. His heart was fiercely passionate for those in his immediate life. He felt loss extremely deeply. His sensitivity towards love and loss, hurt some relationships in his life. His heart was very fragile and deep. I had the privilege to have loved Steve for more than 11 years. We are forever connected between our two daughters Justine and Jamie. Steve was an awesome, loving, attentive, hands-on father when they were in his presence. He adored his girls. Jackie, Justine and Jamie bonded through the love of the Ashley family unit, which continued with Janice and Jacob. In this world or the next, my shared gift with him will always be Justine and Jamie. For that I am forever grateful for his life.

To Steve: May you find peace from your pain. May you reap all the benefits from his Kingdom. I trust your Mama welcomed you into her loving arms you have missed. I know you will protect your ‘sugars’ from where you are. Look after them through those clouds like I know you can.
