“ Darlene and her twin Charlene were my best friends in the whole world. She and I have so many memories together growing up as neighbors in Indianapolis. My heart is broken and I will hold her in my heart for the rest of my days. Without the twins I wouldn't be who I am today. Thank you Darlene and Charlene for sharing my life, my hopes, my dreams, for bringing me out of my shell and making me laugh at life! I love you both so much and my condolences go out to the rest of the Reed family. I love you all too.

“ Darlene helped me with my first couple of jobs straight out of high school into the body shop business. She beloved in me enough at one time I was the youngest painter in tulsa. I eventually found another calling but I have always considered her and Larry friends. She will be missed.##imported-begin##David Ashlock##imported-end##

“ Thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Wish I could be there but I will be in spirit. Even though we don't stay in touch family is never forgotten. Darlene was a fun-loving person and always lived life to the fullest. Spending summers with the family in my younger years was so much fun and we made lots of memories! I love you all very much and will be thinking of you.

Love ya,

Vicki###imported-begin##Vicki Ramsey###imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of your loss of Darlene. It is a challenge to comfort someone over the loss of one whom they love. The Bible gives the best comfort as it tells us about the resurrection hope at John 5:28,29. Isaiah 49:15 assures us that God does not forget us. Revelation 21:4 promises an end to death, pain, mourning and tears. May you have comfort as you put faith in the promises of Almighty God, Jehovah.###imported-begin##J. Ferguson###imported-end##
