“David Hatfield Hollis lived life on his own terms — with heart, humor, and a story always ready to tell. He loved his faithful dog, Archie, treasured his boat, and found peace and joy on the lake. Though he was widowed, he never stopped living life to the fullest, carrying both love and resilience with him every day. David had a gift for connection. His legendary, “crazy” stories and vibrant spirit left a lasting impression on everyone he met. Over the past three years, he became family to us. Caring for him was not just a responsibility, but a blessing. My children and I will forever cherish the laughter, lessons, and love we shared with him. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all whose lives he touched.

I graduated from Okmulgee High School with David in the class of 1977. It's always tough to see someone close to your own age pass on. RIP David.
