My deepest condolences to all of the Hopper family. David was a wonderful man in all aspects to his family. My apologies for not attending his Celebration of life, had wanted to come so much but I had just loss my husband on 10/8 and was unable to gather the strength to get out. Please accept my apologies. My heart breaks for you all.

“ I remember all of you so well, playing hide and seek at night, throwing rocks in a sock at the street lights to watch the bats dive, just having a great childhood. I'm so sorry for all of the family. Hugs to you all. Love you Linda.
