“ I remember David from when we were kids the most. His sister was my best friend in elementary so I was at there house a lot. I loved arguing with him. He was the little brother I never had. He was always so much fun but he had a little ornery streak in him. He became a wonderful man, husband, dad and papa. Lost him too early but he has left his mark on this world. Prayers for family.

“ I was in OKC with my husband a few years back and we were holding hand in the elevator and some preteen girls told us how cute we were and that we were their goal couple. Lol. Made me think of David and Linda when I was a kid. They were my goal couple. They got it right the first time around. As Granny Taylor would say, third time is a charm. Lol. I got it the third time around. Love my sweet memories of David. Prayers for peace and comfort.

“ My memory of David was when he was just a little boy. My mom, dad and I would visit the Schachles quite often. David kept his many army men in an ottoman and he would play with them so much. It was such an enjoyment watching him. Sweet, sweet boy.

“ I will always remember my Uncle David’s zest for life. No matter the task at hand, he completed it wholeheartedly. He left an impact on the many people he encountered in life. May his legacy live in the hearts of those he loved and impacted along the way. Much love to Aunt Linda, my cousins Amber and Lance (and your children). ❤️

“ I always enjoyed our conversations and one thing I am grateful for is social media. It allowed us to reconnect when I became an adult. Each year I had a birthday you would always say you must be 25 years old. LOL I will always remain 25 each year going forward. I look back on the gathering that we had at your home a few months ago and to just sit next to you and share memories is a moment I will treasure forever. We had laughs and I was able to sit next to you and watch a Saturday afternoon football game. Now your work is done and I know that Lord an Savior said well done my good and faithful servant.

I will never ever forget you.....Until we meet again
