“ I remember the bus stopping every morning on the way to school and picking David and Deana up, she always was so pretty, She seems to have had a few rough patches in her life and has some us, has, losing her brother and dad that can always be so hard but now I beleive she can be with them, be without pain, sickness and suffering. Though her friends and family are left behind there will always be a part of her in our thoughts and hearts that no one can take away. Through the the Blood of Jesus who died on the cross for us I beleive we shall all meet again. Love you, my sister.

*Kay and family, We are so saddened by the loss of your precious Deana. I have known Deana all my life, even though we lost contact when I moved away, we were reunited through Facebook. She was a precious and sweet lady with a big infectious smile. There are so many family and friends that are going to miss this sweet lady. Prayers for all of her family. Heaven gained a beautiful angel. Until we meet again.

“ Dear Family,

We are extraordinarily heartbroken. Deana has always been our 'family' since the first day we met. The void of her loss will never be filled. We are so thankful to have been able to visit her this last July, wish it could have been longer. RIP our dearest of friends.
