Tribute Wall

“ I am certain it was Delberth Belcher. He arrived with his wife Sally, and together they were great servants of God. They came to Hermosillo around 1982 and remained there until about 1984 or 1985. They started a mission in my home, which over time grew into a church. I remember him happily playing his accordion, and I treasure the best memories of them—their faith, their dedication, and the warmth with which they shared their lives with all of us.

“ To be absent form the body is to be present with the Lord. He loved the Lord so much. He was always so excited to talk about missionary work. His joy of the Lord was contagious.

“ "This is the Day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it." This scripture was one that Br. Belcher would shout out each time he got an opportunity to speak at Crosstown. He was and will always be an inspiration to me. He bought me books, he taught me lessons about life and his love for people will never be forgotten.

We are grateful to the Lord for Bro. Belcher's life. He was a friend of missionaries and we were always glad to get to see them at Crosstown. We pray comfort for the family and send special regards and love to Sis. Belcher.
