

Dessie Mae Jones

March 10, 1913 - September 20, 2011

Dessie Mae Pope Jones, 98, was born March 10, 1913 in Talco, Texas to William and Cassie (Gill) Pope. She passed away at her home in Beggs, Tuesday afternoon, September 20, 2011. In attendance was her long time friend and caretaker, Joy Overton of Beggs. She met Glenn T. Jones when he came to work in the Texas Oil Fields. They were married on February 10, 1934. Born to this marriage were five children: Glenda Mackey of Beggs, Wanda Thomas and AnnaLea King of Tulsa and Burt Jones of Beggs. Her survivors also include 10 grandchildren and several great and great great grandchildren, other relatives and many friends. Her husband in 2003 and one daughter Nina Joyce in 2005, a sister Gladys, and two brothers Floyd and Gerald preceded her in death.

Mae was a charter member of the First National Bank of Okmulgee Priority Club and a 45 year member of Beggs Chapter of Order of Eastern Star and was elected to all the Chapter Chairs and her last attendance was September 12th. Though she was slowed by the years, she was never stopped, always ready to go somewhere to eat, sightsee, or shop. Mae was especially fond of red flowers, clothes and was very appreciative of compliments and gifts with and without any particular occasion associated. She was the faithful member of First Baptist Church, Beggs until her death. She had a circle on her calendar to attend the next outing of the Senior Adults.

Funeral services will be graveside on Saturday, September 24, 2011 at 2 pm at the Beggs Cemetery with Rev. Chris Gore officiating. Visitation will be on Friday, 1-8pm at the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home in Beggs. Condolences may be made at mccclendon-winters.com.
