“ *My heart is heavy with sorrow,
that I shall not see you tomorrow,*

The memories of youth came crashing, with the news of your passing,

*They say you are at rest in a better place,
Someday I will see you in the same space.*

*To my beloved Aunt Dola, may you be at peace.

Thank you Aunt Dola for being a part of my childhood, I know you helped to make it a little brighter.

“ Dola Colvin is my big sister. And she was a good one. She is 16 years older and made a wonderful baby sitter. Our Mom was just sure I'd be so clumsy I couldn't walk straight. Big sister to the rescue! Some of my earliest memories are of Dola teaching me to dance, to sing, fixing my hair, sewing for me..you name it. She took care of me, her 3 children, our elderly Grandmother, and our dying mother for close to a year. I don't have any idea what we would have done without her. I'll miss you, Sis.
