“ To my grandma, words can't describe how much you mean to me, you have been there for everything, every milestone, every laughter, every tear, everytime I needed to vent. When I couldn't get ahold of you I would call grandpa on his phone and I would ask where you were and he would say oh she's on the other phone with your mom or Aunt Venecia...lol. It was a routine. So I had to wait my turn. Then there were the times I wouldn't want to hear what you were saying, and I would argue and you would bicker back, that was our thing, who am I going to argue with now, cause grandpa isn't good at arguing, he just laughs at me. I will miss all of our talks, about cooking, and everything else. I am so glad you got to see me and Caron have kids of our own. You always called us your salt and pepper granddaughters. Lol.. You and grandpa did spoil us just a little bit. I will always remember the trips to Missouri to see Uncle Randy and Caron, the summers and breaks we spent with yall and the mystery of "who left that Easter egg in the Van" which was not me!!! Caron!..lol. We may have taken alot for granted, but I am so blessed and thankful that I had you as my grandma and Maddisyn and Abel got to have several years with you and got to share memories like I did. I love you so much grandma and if I could give anything to have another moment with you I would in a heartbeat, but I know you are with us, in our hearts and our memories, and no one can ever take that away. ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ ❤️
