My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother (and your Dad - I did not know). I always enjoyed visiting with all of you when you were in the store. Your folks were very sweet people.

First off, Thoughts and Prayers for the family. This is a great loss but she will always be in your hearts.

I have always considered Doris my aunt even though she was no longer a part of the family. One of my most fondest memories of Aunt Doris was when I was little I remember her painting my nails. She was a very beautiful woman, inside and out. Of course, my fascination was also with her German accent. That was cool, especially to hear when you are little.
