“ Dorothy I. Reed, My Mom

That day of receiving the news of my Mother passing, was welcomed by me. Health-wise, Mom had been on a downhill trend for a few years. October 21st was her 92nd birthday. I had been a part of her life, off and on, for 68 years. Like me and for many, many people, the change from Mom being Mom, to having to be mothered herself, was not the best of feelings for each of us who lived far away. Nothing, except for the faith instilled in of us kids by Mom, for as long as I can remember, of a better life after passing from this world, could have prepared us for what we saw Mom go through in her final years.

That faith she gave us had a way of easing those natural negative feelings of losing loved ones. Having no faith, she believed, allowed the drama of blame for the loss of a loved one, to creep into your life. I don't remember ever seeing or hearing Mom blame anyone for her losses. Her faith, that everything happened for a reason and that there was a much better life after passing, carried her through 92 years of life. And I have that same faith today, instilled in me by Mom many years ago, as many of you gather here in her memory have, I am sure, that today, she is with all of her loved ones that have passed from her life.

My Dad, Bill Reed, said to us a few times that in our family we never subtract or divide, we only add or multiply. I know that on Sunday, October 26th, a very special person was added in heaven. And I am sure my Dad, Bill Reed, along with my big sister Dorothy Lee and my little brother Billy, all welcomed the addition of Mom with opened arms and big smiles. We miss you Mom, but with our faith, we also look forward to the day of seeing you again. Thank you for coming to help celebrate My Mother's life. Amen.

“ Mrs Reed was an example of love and motherhood. I will never forget her happy smile, delicious snacks and the ability to make everyone feel welcome in her presence. She and Mr Bill exemplified family to me and loyalty in its truest form...heaven has gained a beautiful new angel. Until we meet again Mrs Reed. We will always love you!

Mom, You will be missed here on this side, but we will meet again in heaven one day. You were the best Mom anyone could ever be blessed with. Thanks for always being there when ever I needed to talk, I will miss our talks a lot. Thanks for always being such a beautiful example of what a Christian women should be. We all have such wonderful memories of you and your life so now I know you have entered into your reward. Love you.
