“ I first met ol Doug as a fellow 5th grader at Roosevelt Elementary. He was always friendly, but we all knew he was a tough guy, even as a kid, so you didn't mess with him. I'd see Doug, every now and then, at the One Fire Casino. It was always a friendly: "Hey Dean, how's it goin?" I'm sure going to miss seeing Doug around. His presence will be missed.

“ I remember when he would come thru the drive thru at Arvest and every time I would get on the camera to ask how could I help him today, he would always jump like I scared him. It was a little joke between us both. He just came thru on Monday 08/14/23. Hard to believe he was taken back home that quick. My condolences to his children and the rest of his family/friends.
