

Dwayne E. Ausbrooks

December 12, 1955 - December 29, 2025

Dwayne Edwin Ausbrooks, 70, of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, passed from this life surrounded by his family on December 29, 2025. A devoted husband, proud father, and beloved Papall, he lived his life with strength, quiet faith, and unwavering love for those he held closest.

Born on December 12, 1955, in Okmulgee, he was the son of the late Paul Edward Ausbrooks, Sr. and the late Frances Ausbrooks.

Dwayne graduated from Okmulgee High School in 1974. Shortly after, he began working for Harding Glass in Tulsa, where his work ethic and dedication laid the foundation for a lifelong career in the glass industry. His entrepreneurial spirit led him to work alongside his brother, Eddie, at Ausbrooks Cars, and later launch Okmulgee Pest Control and Okmulgee Tree Service, both of which served the community for several years.

On June 7, 1975, Dwayne married the love of his life, Debbie Ray Francis, and together they shared over 50 years of unwavering love. Their greatest accomplishment and joy in life was the family they built and raised.

In 1985, Dwayne and Debbie stepped out in faith to start their own business—Ausbrooks Glass—which grew into what is now known as Ausbrooks Glass & Truck Works, a company that was built from the ground up on honesty and integrity and continues to serve the community 40 years later.

Dwayne's legacy was built through his love for business, family, and the Lord. He was happiest supporting his children and grandchildren—whether driving his boys all across the United States chasing their rodeo dreams of calf roping or sitting in the stands cheering at every sporting event his grandkids played. He cherished Sunday morning drives with a fresh Dr Pepper, gospel music on the radio, Debbie in the passenger seat, and time alone with God. His truck and the open road were his church—because faith to Dwayne was personal, steady, and lived out more than spoken.

Dwayne is survived by his loving wife, Debbie; son, Danny Ausbrooks and wife Rachel; son Rocky Ausbrooks and wife Samantha; daughter Melissa Ausbrooks Clark and husband Cody; and grandchildren Cooper Ausbrooks and wife Ashlyn Ausbrooks, Brylee Ausbrooks, Kellen Dean, Kaden Dean, Tesfaye Ausbrooks, Kaleb Ausbrooks, and Addisyn Ausbrooks. Dwayne was eagerly anticipating the arrival of his first great-grandchild. His legacy lives on in his children and grandchildren—in their work ethic, resilience, sense of humor, and the way they love their family. He is also survived by his siblings Eddie Ausbrooks and wife Angie, Sharon Martin and husband Carl Martin, Anna Banks and husband Rick Banks and Paula Delso and husband Bill Delso. He is survived by many extended family members and lifelong friends. Dwayne is preceded in death by his parents Paul and Frances Ausbrooks as well as his sister, Gloria Greene.

Dwayne will be remembered as a hardworking man with a heart anchored in family and loyalty. His presence was strong, and his actions spoke louder than anything he could have said. He leaves behind a legacy of grit, generosity, faithfulness, and love that will carry on through the generations that follow him.

“ When we lose someone we love so deeply, life seems empty and we feel so alone. Our lives are forever changed. That is when we realize the importance in the kindness of friends. When my husband, Terry Ballard passed away, I asked God to send me someone that would help me sell our travel trailer and two Sea-Doos. God answered my prayer immediately. He sent me Dwayne Ausbrooks. Dwayne not only sold my travel trailer within just a few days, but he personally bought the Sea-Doos. It was a blessing to have someone so kind and willing to take this burden from me when my world had just been turned upside down. His kindness has not been forgotten. My heart truly hurts for your family. I have traveled this journey, and I know the pain. I pray you find peace in the love and memories he left behind. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.
God Bless. Mary Ballard and Family

“ Dwayne was a classmate of mine through elementary school. One of my fondest memories is sitting next to him in our first grade reading circle. He was a genuine guy, not pretentious and I've always had the deepest respect for him. I pray for his family as they deal with his loss that the Lord will comfort them here on earth until they meet again in heaven. My love and thoughts are with his family. Barbara (Perry) Moore

“ So sad to hear of Dwayne passing..especially this time of year.

My thoughts and 🙏🙏 go out to the Ausbrooks family.

I remember the Ausbrooks growing up on Okmulgee street and my family-Maloney's grew up on Griffin Street. A few years ago, I purchased an OU golf cart and utility trailer from Dwayne and hauled it to Florida, where I now live. I was so Excited.. had a lot of Fun driving it around Florida.

Yes, lots of compliments.

I told Dwayne and he just laughed.

RIP DWAYNE.. Heaven received a good angel.

“ I never met a more honest straight forward man. Dewayne had a heart as big as the world. He always treated me with the upmost respect and wanted everyone he met to go out do good in their life. He worked me like a dog every chance he got and I loved him for that. I wish I could have talked to him one more time before he left this life. But I'm thankful for the times I did get to see him and talk. Sending my thoughts and prayers to Debbie, Danny, Rocky, and Melissa. Dewayne was a hellva a guy. I'm sorry for your loss. Love you all.
