

Edith Reynolds Vance

August 5, 1926 - March 26, 2018

Edith Mae (Reynolds) Vance died at her daughter Susie's home in Lafayette, Louisiana on March 26, 2018 at age 91. The daughter of Jake and Leota Reynolds, Mama was born on their farm east of Morris, Oklahoma on August 5, 1926, the first of six children. She grew up in Morris and graduated from Morris High School, class of 1944. She met Howard Vance there in elementary school. They were married on June 15, 1947. They spent most of their married life in Lafayette where mama was very active in the First Christian Church of Lafayette, Church Women United, and Mary Kay. A few years after daddy died in 1984, Mama returned to Morris where she spent the remainder of her life.

Known as Edith, Mama, Granny and Aunt Makie, among those left to remember and honor her, are two of her three children, her son Steve Vance (Las Vegas, NV) and her daughter Susan Lovell (Larry) (Lafayette, LA). Our deepest gratitude to Susie and her husband Larry for their sacrifice and loving kindness in caring for Mama in her last days. She is survived by four of her five grandchildren, Jake Vance, Noah Vance, Chelsie Lovell Doucet and Kylie Lovell. She was blessed with seven great grandchildren Ashley, Tristan, Bryce, Megan, Noah, Vance, and Reid. She is also survived by her sisters Stella Davis (Charles), June Parker (Charlie) and her brother David Reynolds (Mary Jane), the best of men. She was aunt to twenty-three nieces and nephews and great and great-great aunt to many more who knew her. Mama will rest next to Daddy and her parents. On this same day we will bury her son Doug nearby. Doug, our brother and Noah's father, died on December 31, 2017. Among those also near are her, brother Bud Reynolds, sister Maxine Biby (d.2017) and Steve's wife Linda (d. 2015). “ I've been friends with Susie for a long time and had met her mom many times in the past, but what I will remember Edith for the most will be my time caring for her this past year, especially the last few months. It was an honor and a privilege to spend time with this very special lady. She was witty, entertaining, mischievous, but foremost, she was sweet, kind, loving and oh so thankful for the care she received. She spoke about God and Jesus often and I have absolutely no doubt that she is now in His presence with all her loved ones whom she's been wanting to see again for so long. Edith, I will miss our talks and the laughter we shared so much - you will always have a special place in my heart. Godspeed beautiful lady!
