“ My grandma Marie was one of the greatest bull headed loving woman to me.we were blessed to have traveled all over with her and grandpa growing up.I WILL never forget her being mischievous and telling me she presto on me on the splash mountain ride at Disney world which she really didn't and being in Hawaii with her being silly and yelling at the innocent people on the streets as we passed by saying yawn get out of here.she just always loved to get your goat and try to embarrass you and make you laugh.grandma you did that for sure.I remember growing up having a family tradition we always celebrated Christmas on Christmas eve.you are in heaven now with grandpa and aunt v.looking down on us with a smile and making way for us to see you again in heaven.love you always grandma.
Love Danielle.
