“ My love and prayers go out to the family. Each time I saw Liz we had laughs and good visits. She always had a a light in her eyes and spirit that made me know that I mattered to her. She told me how to say words in mvskoke. May her kind loving way be remembered by us all.##imported-begin##Dana Tiger##imported-end##

“ Senora, so sorry to hear about your loss. Just know that you and the kids are in my thoughts and prayers. I think this has been a really tough year for alot of us but I also know that you are a strong person and can get through this. I can't say this gets easier to deal with because I don't know yet, but alot of people tell me it does. Hug all the kids for me and stay strong for them as well. Keep your head up and find where you can get strength and keep going there. Rayna##imported-begin##Rayna Thornton##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Liz was one of my students at Bacone. She was so sweet and nice and I enjoyed having her in my classes. I know she loved her Head Start students and they were very important to her.

God Bless you!##imported-begin##Lydia Campbell##imported-end##

“ Wynona, Senora, Wolf & girls: Hearing this sad news was so unbelievable!!Lizabeth was a very good person, and I enjoyed very much, talking to her when we seen each others. I thought highly of her, and respected her as she respected me. She was never a friend, she was a family member to my family. She is now with her mother, and Baby John having a wonderful time, watching over the ones who she left behind to cherish her memories... Kids, and grand childrens, she will be missed greatly. May God be with you each during this time.##imported-begin##Alison (Asbury) Alexander & Cara Alexander##imported-end##
