“ Glenn was a all around good guy. We both graduated from Sayre High School, Sayre, Oklahoma. We referred to Glenn as the "walking dictionary" as he was very smart. He was in the class of 57 while I was in the class of 60. His younger brother H B was someone I probably knew better than Glenn. Being from a small town I believe we all knew Glenn, his sister and H B. You will be missed.

“ When I think of Glenn, I think of the times we would pick him up at Clinton Sherman Air Force Base during his Naval service time. He would fly in from Florida to see his family here in Oklahoma. He looked so handsome in his Navy uniform or flight suit. I remember that when he laughed, he laughed all over. I always felt a connection with my older cousin Glenn because we both were redheads! My heart hurts for you Marianne, Frances and Henry. You and your families are in my thoughts and prayers.
