“ Greg was always here at Economasters, we joked that he had an office here too! He was always a pleasure to be around. He will be sorely missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all, that you may remember the good, and that you will see him again one day.

“ Greg did inspections at our shop. When ever he came in, he would always greet you with a smile. He had a good/kind nature about him. Even when we had done something wrong, he was gentle in the way he explained it. He was truly a pleasure to work with, and he will be missed by all of us here.

“ It is hard to find the words to help comfort the family. Greg was definitely a family man and loved his family dearly. He and Terri loved one another and enjoyed time spent together. I have been a friend and co-worker with Terri for 10 years and actually a short time with Greg. This family loved God and I am sure Greg is fishing today. My family sends all the hugs possible for Greg's family and pray God comforts them now and days to come. God speed and Angel wings. Get that big buck Greg!

“ Greg was always in a great mood, had a little joke or quick wit when he came into my office. I always enjoyed our talks about baseball and softball, I teased him about growing out his hair. He was a great man of integrity, I will so miss our daily contact. I am forever blessed for knowing him. He will miss greatly

May God comfort all who have known him, lift up his loving family in this time of sorrow

“ Coming from a young person working in the manufacturing industry, Greg was always so kind and quick to share helpful advice and experience. He showed me respect when no one else did, and he often went out of his way to help if I had a question. That speaks a tremendous amount to his character. He was as a person who genuinely cared about the people with whom he worked, so I'd like to thank the people near and dear to his heart for holding him to that high standard. I'm sure that's a reflection of the love you showed him.

May God be with you in this time of sorrow, and may you find comfort in the knowledge that we'll see him again one day! - Hunter Tighe “ Always giving and caring is how Greg was. I liked the way he treated and worked with people, especially those who may be, how should I say, "strongly opinionated" He wore an E-Tech hat all day and always stood strong for what he believed was right. I am so blessed that our paths crossed and that he and I had an opportunity to share our experiences.

I pray for his family, may your broken hearts might be soon filled with the fond memories, and your sorrows be replaced with things that bring you Great Joy.

“ I have had the pleasure of working with Greg for the last 11 years at E-Tech.

He truly was a one of the sweetest and most kind man. He was always smiling and always had an uplifting spirit. I will miss him dearly.
