

H.G. "Mac" McChesney

November 25, 1927 - January 17, 2020

H.G. "Mac" McChesney was born November 25, 1927 in Olney, Texas to Herbert and Mary (Waggoner) McChesney. Following high school he served four years in the Navy as a helmsman. When he returned to Texas following his military service, he met and married his lifelong love and partner, Wanda L. Rose on June 29, 1950. He was a proud Texas Tech Red Raider, where he graduated with a degree in petroleum geology. Mac loved geology, the oil patch and the out of doors. His work brought him all over the Rocky Mountains and Oklahoma. Part of his love of the outdoors included the skies. Mac became a pilot and loved being in an airplane. The greatest loves of his life were God and his family. He served as a Sunday school teacher for the Men's class and a deacon at the church. He was an amazing husband, father, grandfather and friend to many. His legacy of being a strong Christian, family patriarch and best of men, will live on. He was called home to be with his heavenly father January 17, 2020.

Mac is survived by his wife Wanda L. McChesney of the home, daughter Frankie and husband Jerry Peterson of Dayton, Nevada, son Michael and wife Lynda McChesney of Pinedale, Wyoming, son John and wife Nancy McChesney of Morris, Oklahoma, daughter Sue and husband Gary Bardwell of Franklin, Virginia and a sister Marge Shell of Artesia, New Mexico, thirteen grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren. What a wonderful tribute to a wonderful man. He and my father, Bob (Robert M.) Veal were great friends and had many adventures together until Bob passed unexpectedly in 1994. They shared a love for hunting, fishing and flying airplanes to name a few of their common interests. I remember Mac from my childhood. He always had a quick smile and I knew from a young age that Mac was a friend my Dad valued very much. RIP Mac. A long life, well lived.

“ Mac was a great man. I was 13 when I met him, and he always seemed larger than life. I'll never forget when he took me, and my stepbrother, flying in his plane. That was better than any amusement park ride. He was a kind man, and a very welcoming man. My condolences to Wanda, and the rest of the family.

“ My sincere condolences to Mr. Mac's family. I(we) met Mr. Mac . (and his family)at our son's wedding. As time went on I learned more about Mr. Mac from my daughter-in-law, Holly Later I started calling him on his birthdays, Christmas, Memorial Day and other times. I found we had a few things in common such as liking each others faorvite college football teams (roll Tide and go Oklahoma State). Although we only visited by telephone Mr. Mac became a friend whom I liked and respected very much. I will really miss being able to talk with him. I know Mr. Mac is a Christian and know we will meet again some day.

May God watch over Mr. Mac's family and especiallyMrs. Mac, giving her comfort, peace and protection during this sad time.

“ I've met few people in my life who were as genuine, intelligent, and as fun to talk to. This was a man I could talk to for hours, and had a lifetime of colorful stories to tell. He loved Jesus, it was a humbling and awe inspiring experience to hear him in prayer to our Lord and Savior. I will miss his insight into the Word, and his friendship. Praying for Wanda and the family, thank God Mac is upright and viewing the glory of Heaven at this moment.
