“ Hannah always lived life to the fullest. Keith and Hannah were high school sweethearts, and that friendship continued until the day she died. Hannah had the cutest laugh. Prom was so special and we had so much fun taking pictures. Hannah played some excellent basketball. We never missed a game. Hannah was extraordinary to special. Her heart was the heart of a servant. An image of Christ. We miss you Hannah. We love you all.

“ Ms. Hannah, I still look over for your vehicle to be here at school when I drive up. I know I was like a mother hen to you, but I truly worried about you. Thank you so much for choosing Hanna School to teach at. Our students loved you so much. I miss your hugs and the compassion you showed to me and these students. RIP my sweet friend. I'm a friend for ever. Deanda Sherrell From Hanna School
