Hattie Daniels, 89, passed away on March 5, 2025, in Tulsa, OK. She was born on December 1, 1935, in Seminole, OK, to Ryder Larney and Haney Micco.

Hattie attended Eufaula Boarding School and Chilocco before marrying Earnest Daniels. Together, they added two children to their family. She worked as an accounting clerk at Amerada in Tulsa for several years before becoming a tutor with Tulsa Public Schools, a job she found very rewarding.

When her husband took up running, Hattie joined him, and together they participated in several races over the years. She also enjoyed long walks, bowling, and attending church. She was a member of Big Cussetah Methodist Church in Okmulgee but regularly attended Pickett Chapel in Sapulpa, as it was closer to home.

She is survived by her son, Ronald Daniels; sisters, Mullenia Larney; Teresa Walker, brothers Randolph Larney; William Larney; grandchildren, Donald Miller, Jr. and Angela Rutledge; niece, Patty Kishketon; and great-niece, Leighn Koshiway.

A funeral service will be held Tuesday, March 11 at 11:00 AM at Big Cussetah United Method Church with Lay Leader Gloria Lowe officiating.

“ We were blessed to have Ernest and Hattie as our across the street neighbors. She was a joy to be friends with. Each time she thought garage door was open she would call and have us check regardless of what time it was. Which was perfect fine. Beautiful people and lady. She will be missed. RIP Hatt
