December 20, 1998 - August 7, 2024

Ian W. Lampkins life-long Beggs resident, age 25, passed away on August 7, 2024, in Beggs Oklahoma. He was born December 20, 1998 to Harold "Lynn" Lampkins and Tiffany (Harrington) Daniel.

Ian attended school at Beggs. He was a spunky kid who was always on the go and defying the odds. Ian had a huge heart and loved his family and friends. He met his soul mate, Abby Potter, while in high school. One of Ian's biggest dreams was having a family of his own. He was excited about his wife, Abby's pregnancy and the upcoming birth of his daughter, Delilah. Ian developed a passion for cooking as a child, helping his mother prepare meals. He previously worked at the Rodeo restaurant in Okmulgee which fueled his ambition of owning and operating his own food truck. Ian had recently started a job with Okmulgee County District One. He thoroughly enjoyed his work with the county. Ian loved to sing. He grew up singing with his brother, sister, and his friends. He enjoyed singing renditions of Elvis, country and gospel music. He also liked to fish with his older brother Riley.

Ian is preceded in death by his father Lynn Lampkins, grandparents, Jerry Lampkins, Martha (Bland) Kirby, Jerry and Mary Jo (Somers) Harrington. He is survived by his wife Abby, daughter Delilah, mother Tiffany Daniel, brother Riley Lampkins and wife Cierra Cross, sisters Megan Moore and Ashley Lampkins, step-grandmother Vonna Lampkins, numerous nieces and nephews and his dogs Clover and Daisy.

“ Ian was a wonderful cook at the Rodeo and always did a great job frying my shrimp just to my liking... he was always smiling and friendly. I was there when he walked into the Rodeo office and asked for a chance to cook and Eldon loved his passion for cooking and he was hired. Such a tragic loss of a great guy.

“ Our community deeply mourns the tragic loss of one of our home grown sons. For over 20 years I could never hear Ian’s name without telling the story of Tiffany and Lynn being at the little league baseball field after a few days of heavy rain and puddles everywhere. Ian was probably 3 and he would hide beside the bleachers and eagerly wait for someone to walk past the puddle and he would run and jump in it to splash them! He had sheer joy in his eyes! He was the cutest dang kid and mean to the bone. He kept Tiffany on guard all the time! I have simultaneous tears and a smile . . . . My heart hurts for his precious family. Much love and prayers of comfort.
