“ *My aunt Jaquetta was one of a kind!!
She was the funniest, most compassionate, caring, and fun loving person you could ever have the privilege of knowing.
A moment spent with my aunt Jack"n' quacky as I often called her teasingly, was seared into my heart with love, to never be forgotten.
She could make something simple like frying rabbit, and squirrel into a feast of monumental proportions!! She was always melting my heart with her smile and a twinkle in her eye.
From her willingness to adopt me as her own son when I was such a troubled youth, to hanging out on a ponds edge catching crappy with me, every moment with her was precious.
One day when I see you Quetta, you will be vibrant and in your totality.
Until then RIP my loving favorite auntie.
Love forever,
Keith*
