

Jad Alexander Morgan

May 8, 2021

Jad A. Morgan passed away May 8, 2021, in Okmulgee, OK at the age of 81. He was born to Ruby (Bledsoe) Morgan-French in Modesto, CA on July 13, 1939, and raised by his parents Ruby and Ray Pinkston. Shortly after his birth his family moved back to Oklahoma. Jad attended Preston schools, later joining the U.S. Navy. Has was known to his family as a straight shooter, a simple man and they loved the smile that he rarely shared with them. Jad married Carol Jean in Okmulgee in 1995, who recently preceded him in death. Jad is preceded in death by his parents, a brother Tom Pinkston, stepsister Carol Staub. He is survived by his son Donald Ray Morgan, Sr. and wife Tammi of TX; stepson Richard Michael Nelson of Tulsa; sisters Judith Williams and husband Jim of Bartlesville; Peggy Monahwee and husband Anthony of Muskogee, grand children Donald Ray Morgan, Jr., Baleigh Ray Morgan, Tarun Wilson and Kayci Griffin, numerous nieces and nephews, eleven great-grandchildren, and life-long friend and business partner David Frazier.

A committal service will be held Saturday, June 12, 2021, at Okmulgee Cemetery.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home of Okmulgee. Memories, condolences, photos and videos may be shared with the family on Jad's Tribute Page of our website at www.mcclendon-winters.com

Tribute Wall

“ Jad Alexander Morgan

December 20, 2022 at 11:29 AM