*I remember you as a small boy, full of smiles and grins. You were joyful hanging around your parents, so proud of them.
I love your mom, we were kids together. I only can imagine the deep footprints you have left in their hearts.
Before we met you God already had your days counted and though the time He had given was surely not enough, He did give us the most exhilarating, joyous, deepest love we were ever to experience. For that, only greatfulness is truely within our hearts.
Say hi, to my son and to your brother.
We send our love and will see you soon.....*

“ Last weekend I had a tough week at work and was going thru something personal that he knew of. him, me Nathan and Tabitha spent the whole day lazing around the house. We all sat around and just talked and laughed. He kept the humor going and we all talked from the heart. He talked about the unspoken love between him and his father. He said we don't talk about things like that but we both just know. He said he knows that I love and respect him. He kept the entire day light and humorous and said he wanted spaghetti for dinner. It was an awesome day and his company made it even better. I miss you little man.

“ I'll never forget when Bobby was in Colorado and he called you to help me, because I had a flat tire. You came to my rescue with a tire in hands and some extra cash. You told me, if I needed anything you'd be here for me especially since Bob wasn't here. I love you brother! So many more memories I could share, but this one is the sweetest one! Rest easy now... I'll keep an eye out for your mom and dad for you!

So sorry for your loss. Will keep you and your family in our prayers. I didn't know him. But my boys went to school with him. They said they are sorry to hear about him.
