“ Oh James, we miss you my friend. We didn't know you were gone for a very long time. I'm so sorry you didn't make it back to PS in body, but we know you're there in spirit. Be free my friend. You are in my heart. With love, Angel

“ When I ran the Advantages Program in Okmulgee County, James was one of my clients! Over the years when I visited him, I was always careful to follow his instructions by the numbers and eventually gain his trust. I was so flattered that he trusted me and I took extra precautions to make sure to never betray it. For several years, I only spoke to James via intercom or telephone, but still found him to be an extremely nice, intellectual man! Highly intelligent. Just before we lost him, he asked me to come to the backroom where he resided and we finally shook hands and conversed face to face. I wasn't acquainted with James like the other folks on this page, but I can attest to his charismatic personality and kindness. I really liked him.

“ I wondered why I had not heard from James for some time. Childhood memories are etched in my mind. Growing up in Palm Springs. My kindergarten crush on J.D., and my last visit to the Wall home. I was nine years old, and the family invited me to swim. I left my red and white checked bathing suit to dry, and I was too embarrassed to return for it.

Fast forward to a year or so ago, and James and I reconnected on Facebook. He offered me some facial mud, and I responded that I buy beauty products and they sit on the shelf. I thought I had offended him, as (after the fact) he explained it was intended to be sent to me as a gift. After that, the communication slowed considerably, and I hoped it was not because I had hurt his feelings. I do remember that he had asked if anyone knew of a buyer for his home, as he missed Mt. San Jacinto.

I am saddened to hear of the loss of a such a gentle and dear man. I thank God for the recent contact I had with James. I look forward to seeing him on that heavenly mountain one day. May the Lord hold his family close during this time of mourning.

“ The world is a darker place for not having you in it, James. I'm sorry we never got around to soft blankets and star gazing in the arms of the desert we grew up in; and I'm so very sorry you never made it home. If there's any right to be had in the world, you're home now, my friend. You are missed. With love, Angel

“ Damn it James ! Now you will look down on "your mountain" instead of at it. Miss you so my friend.

“ James and I played in a band together years ago, and shared many a great time performing in public. I will always remember his love for music and great enthusiasm which was an inspiration to me and those of us fortunate enough to have known him.

“ We send our prayers to the family. James was our friend and neighbor for many years, he will be missed. One of our special memories of James is one Christmas we gave him a banana nut bread. He called us a couple days later and said the bread was great I bought you guys one but I ate it. we have laughed about that for ever. James was always so appreciative of anything you did for him.

Run with the angels James you will be missed. Harvey and Susie
