“ Jake I'll never forget how you'd joke around and could make anyone go from being in a bad mood to laughing. You loved singing and playing your guitar. You could fix anything that you put your hands on. I'll never forget the beautiful memories of you. Like that time in your truck when we were a teenagers hitting the Ford creek at top speed and ppl jumping out of the way, the laughter in that truck still echoes in my memories and that time we all was digging snakeroot and you went running through the air and hit the car from the high ditch that we all forgot that was there, we all laughed for days. We had so many good times together and will always be blessed with the memories. I'll miss you dearly brother, you'll live on through my memories and heart. Until we meet again brother, I love you more than forever 💕💕
